About SCNU ■

South China Normal University(SCNU) was established in 1933, and is now a member of "Project 211" and a prestigious university in Guangdong Province. It is a comprehensive university, consisting of diverse branches of learning, such as philosophy, economics, law, education, literature, history, science, engineering, and management.

Chinese International program, funded with RMB 4 million yuan, has been one of the key disciplines of 13 SCNU's 211 Programs. SCNU has set up Institute of Chinese International, aiming to integrate all the disciplines to carry out four aspects of research in Chinese International program.

After integration, SCNU has a professional team, consisting of nearly 60 young and middle-aged teachers who have extensive experience in teaching Chinese as a foreign language. Among them, there are about 20 associate professor, 30 teachers skilled in education, psychology, foreign languages and Chinese culture courses.

The university is active in international exchange. SCNU has established a close international cooperation with Russia, Japan, Korea, Indonesia, Ireland, the United States, the Philippines. The number of exchange students from Japan, South Korea, the United States and other countries has increased year by year. Located in Vancouver, Canada, Confucius classroom hosted by SCNU opened in February, 2009.

The above resources provide a reliable guarantee for teaching Chinese as a foreign language in South China Normal University.

In 1988, SCNU was approved by the Ministry of Education to enroll international students. It is one of the first "Chinese Cultural Propagation and Inheritance Base" assigned by Guangdong Government Overseas Affairs Office and Guangdong Education Department. Besides, it can provide the scholarship sponsored by Chinese government.

The College of International Culture which grew out of the Chinese Language and Culture centre is one of the 24 colleges in South China Normal University. It is a professional organization responsible for Chinese language and Chinese culture propagation to the overseas students. Up to now, it has trained thousands of overseas students from over 70 countries in 5 continents.

Since 1990, more than 40 teachers and postgraduates have been assigned to teach Chinese and train the local Chinese teachers in Indonesia, Thailand, Poland, The USA, South Korea, Mauritius, the Philippines and Brunei.
